Palladian Villas of Veneto

Botanical Garden in Padua

Veneto is one of Italy's wealthiest regions, reflected in the extravagance of the grand villas and their gardens. Many of the treasures we visit were designed by Andrea Palladio, one of the most influential individuals in the history of Western architecture. We discover no fewer than six glorious villas, beginning with one of the most recognisable buildings of the Renaissance, the Palladian masterpiece, Villa Rotonda.

Key Highlights

- Guided tour of Villa Rotonda with Count Valmarana
- A tour of historic Vicenza, known as la città di Palladio
- The gardens of Villa Barbarigo, the most complete historical garden in Europe
- Giambattista Tiepolo's grand frescoes at Villa Valmarana

White Cities of Puglia

Alberobello Trulli Houses

For centuries, Puglia was fought over and conquered by the major powers of the day, from the Greeks and Romans to the Turks and Spanish, all of whom have left their mark. Among the more striking features are the cylindrical, whitewashed buildings with grey conical roofs known as trulli. We also see imposing castles, ornate cathedrals, ancient archaeological sites and mysterious caves.

Key Highlights

- La Cutura Botanical Garden, an old country estate built in the classic rural style of the late 19th century
- Guided tour of the town of Alberobello to see some of the trullo houses
- Matera, the Sassi town, famous for movies such as The Passion of Christ and No Time to Die

Rome, Ninfa & Castel Gandolfo

Papal Garden in Castel Gandolfo

Open by special arrangement, we are delighted to offer this rare opportunity to visit the ancient gardens of Ninfa. They are as close to gardening perfection as you can get, with roses, hydrangeas and jasmines curtaining what remains of the walls of medieval buildings and paths meandering beside a crystal-clear river. Equally rare is the opportunity to follow in the footsteps of the Popes as we visit the gardens of Castel Gandolfo, the papal residence just outside Rome. The view from the balcony here, with its strict geometric parterres, edged by towering cypresses and umbrella pines, is a sight to behold.

- Key Highlights
- Enjoy exclusive access to the beautiful and ancient gardens of Ninfa
 - Wander Castel Gandolfo, the Papal residence
 - Explore the streets of Rome at your leisure
 - Visits to Villa d'Este and Villa Lante

NEW TOUR

Gardens of Picardy

Les Hortillonnages

The River Somme, which meanders gently through the countryside of Picardy in north-east France, takes its name from a Celtic word meaning 'tranquillity'. We discover why this is so apt as we cruise along some 50km of the river aboard our electrically powered barge. Running the full length of the waterway, there is a well-maintained towpath, offering the chance to walk where the locks are more closely spaced. We enjoy three half-day cruises over the course of our tour, with the rest of the time spent exploring our host city of Amiens and visiting some of the region's outstanding gardens.

- Key Highlights
- Enjoy three half-day cruises on the Somme waterways with lunch and wine included
 - Take a boat trip around the floating gardens of Les Hortillonnages
 - Discover the elegance at the Château de Long
 - Admire a tranquil country garden with many water features

Gardens of the French Riviera - Menton Lemon Festival & the International Rose Festival

Menton Lemon Festival

Menton's zesty Lemon Festival brings a vibrant burst of colour to our tour of the French Riviera. Exotic gardens, cacti collections and azure seas complete our sparkling itinerary.

The Jardin Botanique Val Rahmeh is filled with lush tropical foliage, a lovely lily pond and showcases an exceptional array of vegetation from around the world. At St. Jean Cap Ferrat, we visit the exquisite gardens of the Fondation Ephrussi de Rothschild, while a short hop over the border to Italy finds us at the incomparable Hanbury Gardens.

In May, the International Rose Festival in Grasse takes the place of the Lemon Festival.

Monet's Garden

Just as the gardens at Giverny inspired Monet, who spent half his life nurturing and enjoying them, they continue to enthrall countless visitors in 2026, the 100th anniversary of his death. His paintings are brought to life, with apple-green arched bridges festooned with wisteria and water lilies framed by the draped fronds of weeping willow. The perfect complement to Giverny is the Orangerie Museum in Paris, where the centrepiece of this outstanding collection is Monet's breathtaking series of murals, Les Nymphéas. We also visit the Château de Chantilly, with its extensive collection of art and gardens designed by Le Nôtre.

Château de Chantilly

Key Highlights

- The incomparable gardens of Giverny, carefully maintained as Monet would have wished
- The Orangerie Museum and Les Nymphéas - impressionism at its most impressive
- The sumptuously decorated Grands Appartements and the Galeries de Peintures of the Château de Chantilly

NEW TOUR Singapore Garden Festival

Singapore Garden Festival

The Singapore Garden Festival takes place every two years and is among the premier flower shows on the international calendar. It was the first event to bring together top award-winning landscape and garden designers, florists and horticulturalists from around the world, who are invited to the festival to work alongside Singapore's own talented horticulturalists. In addition to a full day at the show, we explore Singapore's many treasures, including the spectacular Gardens by the Bay, Hort's Park, Fort Canning's Spice Garden and Singapore Botanic Gardens. No trip here would be complete without an afternoon tea at iconic Raffles too.
