RHS Bridgewater

RHS Bridgewater & Gardens of the North West

4 DAYS from £670 | ACTIVITY RATING

PICK-UP POINTS: London, Luton, Northampton, Birmingham, Stoke-on-Trent

One of the largest gardening projects in Europe, RHS Garden Bridgewater has established itself as a world-class garden. Come along and discover its wonders alongside other horticultural gems on this delightful exploration. Highlights include Trentham Estate with its Italian Gardens, the great plantsman's garden of Dunham Massey and Tatton Park, whose gardens have developed over 200 years yet retain much of their Edwardian character.

Day 1 We depart by coach from our pick-up points this morning and head for the north-west of England, where we begin with a visit to the gardens of Trentham Estate in Staffordshire, where the contemporary revival of the famous Italian Gardens was led by renowned designer and serial Chelsea gold-medal winner, Tom Stuart-Smith. Take the circular lakeside walk all the way round as it winds beside the River Trent, by the bird hide, through Capability Brown's cascading weir and along atmospheric woodland trails. Afterwards, we continue to our hotel in Cheshire.

Day 2 After breakfast, we depart for our visit to the RHS Garden Bridgewater at Worsley, to the west of Manchester. In the afternoon, we visit a nearby private garden, which, in contrast to Bridgewater is much smaller but no less intriguing. The Secret Valley was transformed by its owner from a former Coal Board dumping ground into an urban paradise, where swans and kingfishers nest on the floating islands of the tranquil lake.

Day 3 Following breakfast, we visit the gardens at Dunham Massey. Previously, a garden of straight lines and regimented planting favoured by the 2nd Earl of Stamford and Warrington, the garden became the family's pleasure ground under the 5th Earl when sweeping lawns and meandering paths were introduced. The garden continues to evolve today – modern additions include the Rose Garden and the Winter Garden. Later, we visit Tatton Park, whose gardens have developed over 200 years yet retain much of their Edwardian character. Lewis William Wyatt and Joseph Paxton, architect of Crystal Palace, designed various elements, including the Conservatory, which is now open following a comprehensive restoration programme.

A recent experiment involved installing a summer tropical garden rich in bold shapes and brilliant colours

The award-winning Marwood Hill Gardens rounds off a superb collection.

Day 1 We depart our designated pick-up point and head for Hestercombe, one of Gertrude Jekyll and Sir Edwin Lutyens' greatest masterpieces. We later continue to our hotel in Torquay.

Day 2 Today we visit Mothecombe Gardens, an RHS partner garden which is situated above Mothecombe beach, at the mouth of the Erme estuary. They are tucked under one side of a valley running down to the beach, so they are several degrees warmer than the village of Holbeton and they are sheltered from the prevailing south-westerly salt-laden winds, allowing tender plants to flourish. Day 3 Our first stop today is Wildside Garden, an innovative garden on the fringes of stunning Dartmoor, which allows plants to thrive as they would in the wild. This afternoon we visit The Garden House, a glorious garden set in a quiet valley on the fringes of Dartmoor National Park. Built around decaying 16th-century ruins, Lionel Fortescue created a romantic garden, built on precipitous terraces with lovely views over the garden and surrounding countryside. Clematis and roses scale the old walls that surround the garden and there is a wonderful richness of plants here.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 4 This morning we head north from Torquay to Marwood Hill Gardens. This private valley garden spans across an impressive 20 acres and is home to four National Plant Heritage Collections and several Champion trees. This award-winning garden is most well known for its incredible Astilbe collection, but is also home to stunning lakes and sculpture, as well as rare trees and shrubs. Later, we visit Castle Hill Gardens which are nestled amongst the beautiful North Devon landscape. We spend the afternoon exploring the 50 acres of enchanting grounds set against the backdrop of the stunning 18th-century Palladian mansion.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 5 We depart after breakfast for home, stopping off en route at the gardens of Kilver Court, Shepton Mallet. Orkney & Shetland by Air

5 DAYS from £1,975 | ACTIVITY RATING

DEPARTURE POINTS: Aberdeen or Edinburgh

You asked and we answered! As it's a long way by road and sea, we have launched this alternative itinerary that explores the glorious and wild Orkney and Shetland Isles by air. Over five memorable days, we discover lands steeped in history, wildlife and stunning scenery, far from the jostling crowds as we lose ourselves in the haunting beauty of the Orkney and Shetland Isles.

Many people have landed there before you - some as early as 3000 BC. Most famous of all were the Vikings, but they were not alone and all around you will find historical treasures. Both islands, but particularly Shetland, in summer have virtually no darkness and the beauty of this 'Simmer Dim', as it is called locally, has to be seen to be realised.

Day 1 We fly from Aberdeen or Edinburgh to Sumburgh this morning. Upon arrival, we visit Sumburgh Head, where the North Sea meets the Atlantic, featuring dramatic cliffs and an RSPB reserve. Next, we explore the remarkable Prehistoric and Norse Settlement of Jarlshof, spanning 3000 years from the Stone Age. In the afternoon, we head to Scalloway, Shetland's former capital, to see the ruined castle built in 1600 by Earl Patrick Stewart.
